

Middle Atlantic Association of Colleges of Business Administration Hospitality Resolution – October 2011

Resolved, the 25th day of October, 2011:

Whereas the membership of MAACBA gathered in San Juan, Puerto Rico for the 61st annual meeting; and

Whereas Dean Derya Jacobs assembled a superb and sustainable program of significant educational content; and

Whereas Dean Maritza Espina and her colleagues at Universidad del Este provided superb venues, excellent food, beautiful scenery, magical music and exotic native dancing; and

Whereas the wonderful students of the International School of Hospitality and Culinary Arts prepared and presented a fabulous meal (though they forgot the alcohol!); and

Whereas the gods smiled upon us and kept the storms away; and

Whereas no dean could make a winning mojito, but the day was saved by the pros; and

Therefore, be it resolved that the members of MAACBA express our sincere thanks and gratitude to Dean Maritza Espina and her IEN Business School and Universidad del Este colleagues for their gracious hospitality and flawless execution of the 61st MAACBA Annual Meeting.
